

Gifted and Talented Secondary Selective Entrance John Curtin College of the Arts

Drama callback information

Year 7 entry in 2027

What the callback involves

- Group work and problem solving
- Small group improvisation
- Individual directions
- Prepared monologue presentation

What to bring

- A printed copy of the monologue
- A bottle of water
- A printed copy of the adjusted testing conditions approval email (if applicable and only if you have not already provided this)

Adjusted testing conditions

If your child has been approved for adjusted testing conditions, let the sign-in staff know that you have been approved for adjusted conditions and bring a copy of the printed adjusted conditions if not previously provided during the workshop.

What to wear

Comfortable, form-fitting clothing that is appropriate for free movement. Clothing such as tracksuit pants or shorts and a form-fitting shirt is suitable. Students must not wear jeans, skirts or dresses. If preferred, school uniform can be worn as long as it fits within the requirements. Hair should be tied back, and no jewellery or make-up is to be worn. Students take part in the callback in bare feet.

On the test day

Upon arrival to John Curtin College of the Arts, locate and follow the signs to the drama registration desk and sign-in your child. If your child has any health conditions that staff should be aware of, please inform the team at this time.

At the scheduled finish time, please return to the registration desk to sign-out and collect your child.

What happens next

If your child is successful in the callback, they will be invited to an interview at John Curtin College of the Arts which are scheduled to take place during Term 2. You will be contacted directly by the school early in Term 2.

Students who do not progress to the interview stage will be advised before interview invitations are sent.
