Student Application Package

The 2023 Premier's Anzac Student Tour

The Premier's Anzac Student Tour invites you to become an ambassador and represent Western Australia on a commemorative overseas study tour.

In 2023, the Premier's Anzac Student tour will travel to Sydney and New Zealand to commemorate the 78th anniversary of the end of World II, and the Japanese attack on Sydney Harbour.

Over 993 000 Australians served in the armed forces during World War II. Of those, 27 073 were killed in action or died, 23 477 were wounded, and 30 560 were taken as prisoners of war by other nations. Of those taken prisoner, 8 296 died while in captivity. Remembrance in the broader context acknowledges 1.7 million men and women of the Commonwealth forces who died in the two world wars.

The tour will visit important historical sites including the National Maritime Museum on Darling Harbour, Royal Australian Navy Heritage Centre, Hyde Park Barracks, and the UNESCO heritage site Cockatoo Island before attending Anzac Day commemorations in Auckland, New Zealand.

Applications close at 5.00 pm on Friday, 12 August 2022.

Tour details

Ten students will be selected to participate in this historical commemorative study tour to Sydney and New Zealand from Sunday 16 April to Wednesday 26 April. Selected students will be accompanied by three adult supervisors.

The Western Australian Government will meet the cost of international airfares, official clothing, accommodation, and the group's meals when travelling. Parents will be responsible for meeting passport and visa expenses, travel insurance, immunisations and personal expenses.

Eligibility

To be eligible you must be a Western Australian student currently enrolled in Years 8 to 11 and display:

- a genuine interest in the Anzac experience
- an appreciation of the study of history
- excellent interpersonal skills and self-confidence
- a willingness to share your experiences (if selected) in your school and local community.

You will demonstrate an understanding of some of the positive values exhibited in times of war, the lessons of war for the current generation, and the importance of international peacekeeping processes and non-violent means of resolving conflict.

How to apply

Please prepare and submit a written response to the following topic:

In what way might efforts on the home front be seen as important as battles fought overseas?

Draw on a selected Western Australian individual, community or group to illustrate your response.

Entries should:

- be presented in a suitable form, or combination of forms, such as an article, blog post, essay, letter, speech, or short story of no more than 1000 words (excluding the bibliography)
- demonstrate historical understanding of the period being researched
- be clearly related to the 2023 topic
- be clearly expressed and logically structured
- include an accurate bibliography acknowledging references made (ensuring a variety of resource types are used – not just those found online)
- be original and not use the words or ideas of other people without acknowledgement
- be submitted no later than 5.00 pm on Friday, 12 August 2022 by post or email anzactour@education.wa.edu.au

Competition process

Students may prepare individual responses as a class assessment task or as a personal project outside any assessment schedule.

To be eligible, all entrants require a nominating teacher and principal endorsement to attest to their suitability to represent their schools, communities, and the State as youth ambassadors on the 2023 Premier's Anzac Student Tour.

Schools may conduct their own selection process and can nominate up to three students in each of the two categories: Years 8 and 9, Year 10 and Year 11. All entries should be received no later than 5.00 pm on Friday, 12 August 2022.

Shortlisted applicants will progress to a State final where they will discuss their understanding of the Anzac legacy, and their capacity to act as youth ambassadors for Western Australia. Ten students will be selected to participate in the tour.

Ideas on how to respond to the topic

- Historical events solely centred on war time pressures and their associated impact on Western Australian society at, and since, this time. For example:
  - how mothers, fathers, siblings, girlfriends, wives and friends dealt with their experiences of grief and loss during, and after, wartime
  - the emergence of Anzac Day as a national day of commemoration, and the establishment of the dawn service, Anzac Day march and other commemorative activities
  - the establishment of the returned sailors and soldiers imperial league of Australia, now referred to as the Returned and Services League of Australia, Legacy and/or other ex-service associations
  - the resulting short and long term political, economic or societal changes for Western Australia; and
  - treatment of Prisoners of War.
- The experiences of a particular individual, family, community, unit or battalion within the wider narrative of the Australian wartime campaigns. For example, the story of a:
  - family member and the influence of their experiences over time
  - ship, plane, landmark, tank or township
  - Victoria Cross winner and the impact of their experiences, sometimes heroic and sometimes tragic, on the beliefs and attitudes of successive generations.
- The emergence of humanitarian, resistance and peace movements in Australia. For example:
  - anti-war and peace movements, including the anti-conscription campaigns of 1916 and 1917
  - the establishment of the Red Cross and/or the role of the Wounded and Missing Enquiry Bureau
  - social attitudes to Australia's involvement in the Vietnam War.
- The degree to which the Anzac legacy focuses Australian attention on the events on the Gallipoli Peninsula as opposed to being inclusive of the:
  - role played by Australian Flying Corps (now the Royal Australian Air Force);
  - role played by the Royal Australian Navy
  - contribution of women, especially those who served as nurses during the campaign;
  - contribution of Aboriginal people
  - voices of other Australian participants in the campaign.
- Challenges to the strength or relevance of the Anzac legacy, especially the relevance to women, to a multicultural Australia and in an era when a military heritage was tarnished by widespread anti-Vietnam War feeling.
