1. Policy statement

Screening for criminal convictions is undertaken to maximise the safe learning and working environment for students and staff and other persons attending public schools and working within the Department of Education (the Department).

2. Policy rules

All employees must have a current Screening Clearance Number issued by the Department's Screening Unit before commencement of employment with the Department, consistent with the Department's 'No Screen, No Start' policy position. This also applies to people employed on a casual basis.

3. Responsibility for Implementation and Compliance

Implementation of the policy is the responsibility of principals and line managers.

Compliance monitoring is the responsibility of the Executive Director, Professional Standards and Conduct.

4. Scope

This policy applies to all employees.

6. Definitions

Applicant

Any person who submits an application for a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check under this policy.

Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission

Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) is the federal government agency that facilitates the provision of criminal record information to accredited agencies.

The Department uses the ACIC to access criminal records through the National Names Index and National Police Checking Services across all states and territories.

Criminal History Screening

The process of gathering relevant information about an applicant's criminal record in order to assist in making an informed decision about that person's suitability relevant to their application.

Employee

Any person who is currently employed by the Department under the School Education Act 1999, or the Public Sector Management Act 1994.

Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check

A collation of police and conviction history information about an individual that has been determined releasable by Australia's police agencies and made available to the Department of Education Screening Unit by the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) in accordance with the contractual Agreement between the ACIC and the Department for the purposes of pre-employment/placement/enrolment probity screening. The check involves processing an individual's biographic details, including name and date of birth, against information held by the ACIC through the National Police Checking Service Support System.

No Screen, No Start

The requirement that all new employees, and former employees with a break in service, must be cleared through a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check and allocated a valid Screening Clearance Number (SCN) prior to commencement.

Screening Clearance Number

A unique number allocated by the Screening Unit to applicants who have had a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check processed and have been cleared and permitted to seek employment, placement or enrolment within the Department of Education.

Screening Committee

The committee responsible for making decisions on behalf of the Director General and making recommendations concerning employees/applicants for a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check whose convictions are disclosed as a result of criminal record checks

Screening Status Check

A function within HRMIS allowing Department worksites to check a potential employee's screening status prior to commencement.

Screening Unit

The unit that acts on behalf of the Director General to administer the process of Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check (criminal history screening) for the Department of Education

Spent Conviction

A conviction that has been declared or certified as spent under the Spent Convictions Act 1988 or ordered spent under Section 39 of the Sentencing Act 1995. In Western Australia the Spent Convictions Act 1988 provides for individuals to apply to have certain convictions to be certified or declared spent, generally after 10 years, provided there has been no further convictions. The Department is allowed to consider spent convictions pursuant to an exemption under Schedule 3 of the Spent Convictions Act 1988.

Volunteer

A person who engages in voluntary work where the employment provides no remuneration to the individual, and/or the work undertaken fulfils a charity or community service good. A tertiary student undertaking a practicum in a school is considered a volunteer
